

Consent form for the DENTA Case Challenge

For the submitting author: To protect patient confidentiality, this form must NOT be submitted or uploaded to DENTA. Retain it securely as documentation of consent.

I, [patient full name] _____ give my explicit consent for photographs, illustrations and/or videos of me and/or written information describing my medical history to be published on the DENTA website (entdenmark.com). I also consent to the material being used in an oral presentation at a DENTA event, symposium or conference.

I understand and accept that

- The material will be freely accessible online worldwide and may be shared by others, provided that it is correctly attributed, is not used commercially and is not altered.
- The publication may contain recognisable images or descriptions. Although efforts will be made to anonymise the content, complete anonymity cannot be guaranteed.
- The case published on the website may be viewed by healthcare professionals and members of the public, including journalists and others.
- This consent cannot be withdrawn after the case has been published on the website.
